

Week 29

Primary 3/4

The Write Tribe

Recap + Language drills

Beginner Exercise 1

elated	vexed	sulking
jittery	tranquil

1. Johnathan was _____ when he won first prize. A smile spread across his face and he delightfully pumped his fist in the air
2. The beautiful waves in the sea calmed Joanne down. She felt _____ as she relaxed on the sand.
3. I felt _____ at my brother who was annoying me by mimicking my actions. My face turned crimson red as I waved my fist angrily at him.
4. Pouting her lips, my little sister kept _____ until my father bought her the toy she wanted.
5. The eerie abandoned house made me feel _____. A chill ran down my spine as I trembled with fear.

Beginner Exercise 2

fascination	displeased	depressed
fidgety	ecstatic

1. My mother was _____ that I had failed my examination.
2. _____ overcame me as I stepped into the humongous castle.
It was bigger than I imagined it to be! My mouth was agape with wonder.
3. Mr. Lou became _____ after the death of his wife. His eyes were vacant and he was reduced to a shell of who he used to be.
4. Shelley was _____ to know she had won a million dollars. She twirled around in delight and pumped her fist in the air.
5. Joanne paced around nervously, waiting for her examination results. She could not stand still and felt _____ with each passing minute.

Beginner Exercise 3

furious	petrified	upbeat
nostalgic	apathetic

1. Dad was _____ when he found out I broke his favourite watch. His face was crimson red and he narrowed his eyes at me.
2. Face turning as pale as a sheet, Jaden was so _____ that he was as still as a statue.
3. Yu Xiang feels _____ whenever he passes by his old neighbourhood. He misses playing with his old friends.
4. Janet was in a cheerful mood and feeling _____. A smile plastered across her face.
5. Jane was _____ about completing her schoolwork. Due to that, she she did not graduate in time.

Beginner Exercise 4

chipper	famished	hesitant
peevied	lonely

1. She was a bag of bones. Malnourished, she could barely lift a finger. Her eyes lit up upon seeing a plate of food. She was feeling _____.
2. Greg was feeling _____. He had no friends.
3. Melissa was _____ to take up the offer. The deal raised her suspicions.
4. After having a great day at work, Martha was _____ and in a happy mood.
5. Gritting his teeth, James was _____ at Mary for leaving the dirty dishes at the sink. He was frustrated by her behaviour.

Intermediate Exercise 1

exasperated	dismayed	suspicious
rejected	delighted

1. When no one picked Tom to be in their group, he felt _____.
Slumping his shoulders, he sank back onto his seat.
2. Melinda was _____ when her father broke the promise of bringing her to the swimming pool. Resting her chin on her palms, she looked longingly outside the window.
3. Nat felt _____ when he saw a stranger loitering around his neighbourhood. A queasy feeling rose up his stomach.
4. Mother was _____ to find out that my sister had made a mess for the millionth time! Mother grunted in frustration.
5. Tulip was _____ to find that her mother had baked her a chocolate cake. Her eyes lit up like a thousand-watt bulb.

