

Making predictions about the future

Using will, won't, might, might not, may, may not.

Directions: Mark ✓ if the sentence is a prediction in positive or ✗ if it is not a prediction.

11. My mom will cook a lasagna and bake a cake for my brother's birthday.
12. The teacher is checking the exams and she said there were a lot of A's.
13. The Dodger's game won't be today, it is raining a lot.
14. Ms. Mony and Ms. Sonia are thinking of giving extra points.
15. IENU will be celebrating 26 years, next year 2024.

Directions: Write the sentence using the correct form of will or won't and the verb.

6. I'm completely sure that Victor will pass (pass) the diagnosis exam.
7. Gabriel won't come (come) home at 7, he was so busy at work, he couldn't take a breath.
8. Don't worry! We will get (get) to the restaurant on time!
9. Our fossils project is going quite well, so we think it will be (be) a success.
10. The sky looks blue and clear, it won't rain (rain) today!

Directions: Select the correct option

1. In the future, robots will probably clean the house.
2. We won't probably use plastics and other materials that are bad for the environment.
3. Houses will definitely be more energy efficient.
4. Blue Beavers soccer team will win the soccer game against wildcats.
5. You won't win the spelling bee if you don't study hard!

Directions: Read and unscramble the sentences

16. go to a / I might / with / summer camp / my friends .
17. might / sick / from drinking / People / get / this water .
18. Every day / to the pool / not go / we / may .
19. may / people / clean water / not / to / access / have .
20. The / refugees / help / government / the / might .