

Party Animal or Home bird

Are you a party animal or a home bird? Some people love going out and being the life and soul of the party, while others prefer staying at home in a cosy environment. It's all about what makes you happy and comfortable.

If you're a party animal, you probably love going out with your friends and meeting new people. You're definitely outgoing and sociable, and you get on well with almost everyone. You might be the popular one in your group, and people always invite you to weddings or receptions. You love to dance and have fun.

On the other hand, if you're a home bird, you prefer staying in and spending time with your close friends or family. You might be shy and just prefer a situation where you can share stories, enjoy cooking or watching movies together.

a. a person who loves to go out and have fun at parties		popular
b. a person who prefers to stay at home rather than going out often		home bird
c. people who are very close to us		share
d. a celebration after a wedding ceremony where guests eat, drink, and dance together		shy
e. to have a good relationship with someone		get on well with
f. liked by many people; having a lot of friends or supporters		outgoing
g. feeling nervous or uncomfortable around other people, especially in new situations		cosy
h. friendly and sociable; enjoying the company of others		sociable
i. liking to be with and talk to other people; enjoying social activities		party animal
j. to give some of what you have to someone else so that they can use it too; to tell someone about something personal or important		close friends
k. warm, comfortable, and pleasant, especially inside a small space or room		definitely
l. without any doubt or uncertainty; for sure		wedding reception

1. What is the topic of the text?

- A) Different types of animals
- B) The pluses of being social
- C) The differences between party animals and home birds
- D) The importance of staying up late

2. What does it mean to be a party animal?

- A) To prefer staying at home
- B) To enjoy socializing with close friends
- C) To love going out and meeting new people
- D) To value alone time

3. What kind of person is likely to be the popular one in their group?

- A) A shy person
- B) A person who enjoys cooking
- C) A person who loves to dance and have fun
- D) A person who values their alone time

4. What does it mean to be a home bird?

- A) To prefer staying in and spending time with close friends or family
- B) To enjoy going out and meeting new people
- C) To be outgoing and sociable
- D) To not enjoy socializing

5. What kind of situations do home birds prefer?

- A) A situation where they can share stories and have meaningful conversations
- B) A loud and crowded setting
- C) A situation where they can dance and have fun
- D) A situation where they can stay up late

Fill the gaps:

1. She's such a _____, always dancing and having fun.
2. My sister is a _____, she never wants to go out.
3. _____ are the ones who will always be there for you.
4. The _____ was beautiful, with flowers everywhere.
5. I _____ my colleagues at work.
6. He's very _____ in school because he's good at sports.
7. Sarah is _____ and doesn't like speaking in public.
8. John is _____ and loves meeting new people.
9. Being _____ is important if you want to make friends.
10. Can we _____ this pizza? I'm not that hungry.
11. I love spending time in my _____ bedroom reading books.
12. _____, I'll come to your party next weekend.

Discussion questions:

1. Do you prefer going out to parties or staying at home?
2. What's your favorite thing to do when you're at home?
3. Have you ever been to a party that you didn't enjoy? Why?
4. How often do you go out and socialize with friends?
6. What are some of the benefits of being a home bird?
7. Are there any downsides to being a party animal?
9. What kind of activities do you like to do when you're out with friends?
10. Is it possible to strike a balance between being a party animal and a home bird?