

Name: _____

Subject: Science and Technology

Unit: Measuring wind speed

Read each question carefully and answer each question.

Choose the option which corresponds to the correct answer.

1. An anemometer is used to:

- a. Tell what kind of wind blew
- b. Measure wind speed

2. Where do you stand to use an anemometer?

- a. Inside the house
- b. In a open area outside

3. Which picture represents an anemometer?

Study the following pictures and place them in the correct order.

 Mark one cup	 Push the straw through the center cup
 Pin the straw to the center	 Insert the cup post
 Make one incision in four cups	 Staple the last two cups onto the straws
 Finish product	 Cut four holes under the lip of the center cup

Staple a straw to the two cups

Cut hole in the bottom of the center cup