Why was George Washington considered the "father of His Country"? Click on the answer that best explains why.

He was considered the father if the United States of America because he was the father of twenty-three children.

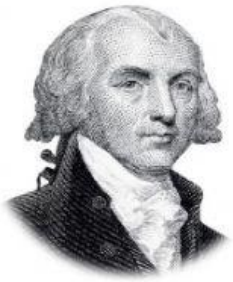

He was labeled "father of his of His Country" because of the great role he played in the founding of the United States. He commanded the Continental Army during the American Revolution, led the convention that wrote the U.S. Constitution,and served as the country's first president.

Why was James Madison considered the "father of the Constitution"? Click on the answer that best explains why.

He created the basic framework for the Constitution and helped write nthe Bill of Rights. He is therefore known as the Father of the Constitution.

He was considered the father of the Constitution. Because he named his Cow Constitution.

LIVEWORKSHEETS