Text for question no. 3 to 6

Last April, John took a trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. Las Vegas is a popular destination in the western portion of the United States. The town is most popular for its casinos, hotels, and exciting nightlife.

In downtown Las Vegas, John spent a lot of time on The Strip, which is a 2.5 mile stretch of shopping, entertainment venues, luxury hotels, and fine dining experiences. This is probably the most commonly visited tourist area in the city. The Strip at night looks especially beautiful. All of the buildings light up with bright, neon, eye-catching signs to attract visitor attention.

A stay in Las Vegas can feel similar to a visit to many popular cities worldwide. Many of the hotels have miniature versions of important international sites and monuments. These famous landmarks include the Eiffel Tower, Venice, and even ancient Rome.

One day, John took a side trip outside of the city to visit the Grand Canyon, one of the Seven Wonders of the Natural World. The canyon offers a breathtaking view of Nevada's ridges and natural landscape. John especially liked the canyon because it was removed from all of the noise and movement in downtown Las Vegas.

John had a great time during his trip to Las Vegas. He did not win a lot of money in the casinos. However, he managed to see a lot of amazing sites during his visit to this city that never sleeps.

CROW AND PEACOCK

Once, long ago, the crow and the peacock were good friends. Every day they would go out together to work or to play. In those day the crow and the peacock both had plain white feathers

One day they were playing in the field of brightly coloured flowers "look, friend peacock. Don't you wish wore bright colors like those flowers? asked the crow. 'I think that would be wonderful, friend crow. I am tired of these plain white feathers," said peacock. Then the crow had an idea. Why don't we paint ourselves? I can paint your feathers and you paint mine! The peacock agreed.

So, the next day the crow began to paint the peacock's feathers. He used the most beautiful colors. He painted the peacock's breast and head a magnificent blue. On peacock's tail feathers he drew elaborate designs. He created large rainbow spots like brilliant eyes on peacock's tail.

Crow spent many hours painting his friend. When he finished, peacock spread his tail feather and began to strut around. He wanted to show everyone his beautiful feathers "Now it is your turn to paint me,' said Crow. But peacock did not want to waste time drawing design on crow. He simply took inks and poured it over crow's head. 'There you are. That should do "

The proud peacock strutted off to show his feathers to the world. So, today the crow is all plain. Even though peacock is beautiful, it is clear that he is too proud for his own good.
