

PARTY DRESSES

Read the story and complete the sentences. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

Sally had a best friend and her name was Lucy. The girls both liked playing tennis but their favorite hobby was dancing and they had lots of great CDs. On Saturdays, they often went to the shops in town with Sally's big sister. Sometimes they bought new jeans or T-shirts there.

1. Sally's best friend is called _____.
2. The two friends _____ tennis.
3. Sally and Lucy liked _____ best.
4. The girls often went shopping on _____.
5. _____ went to the town with Sally and Lucy.

One morning, Sally said to her dad, "It's Lucy's party on Sunday. Can I have a new dress to wear for it?" "Yes!" he said. "But you never wear dresses, Sally!"

"Well, it's easier to dance in jeans," she answered. "But I'd like a dress for the party."

"There's a market today," he said. "We can go and find you a dress there." And they did. Sally's dad bought her a beautiful white one.

6. Sally talked to _____ about Lucy's party.
7. Sally wanted to wear a _____ to the party.
8. Sally went shopping at the _____ that day.
9. The color of her new dress was _____.

On Sunday afternoon, she went to the party at Lucy's house in her new dress. Lucy saw Sally and Sally saw Lucy and they both started to laugh. "We always wear jeans and T-shirts!" Sally said. "But today we're both wearing dresses! Where did you buy yours?" "At the market on Wednesday," Lucy answered. "And you?" "At the market on Wednesday like you!" laughed Sally. "And I bought this for you there too."

"Oh great! A CD! Thanks" said Lucy.

10. The birthday party was on Sunday afternoon at _____.
11. Both girls bought their dresses on _____ from the market.
12. Sally gave Lucy _____ for her birthday.

