

Lesson 1

Suho: Anna, do you have any children's books you don't read any _____?

Anna: Sure. Why?

Suho: I'm thinking of _____ some books to children in Africa.

My _____ told me that they need books to read.

Anna: Good idea, Suho! Wait, aren't your books in _____ ?

Suho: Oh, that's a problem.

Anna: Well, how about _____ them into English? (1)

Suho: Translating? That's a great idea, Anna.

Anna: Do you _____ me _____ help you? (1)

Suho: Sure. If we _____ any difficult _____, let's ask our English teacher for help.

Anna: O.K. It's really great that we can help the children in _____.

Lesson 2

Jaden: Hi, Yuri. What're you doing?

Yuri: Hi, Jaden. I'm reading a book on _____ I'm really _____ them these days.

Jaden: What makes you _____ them so much?

Yuri: The stories are very interesting, and there are lots of _____ about Norse myths.

Jaden: Are they any good?

Yuri: Yes. There's actually a new movie about Thor, a famous _____ in Norse myths.

Jaden: Oh, I know him. He's my favorite online game _____.

Yuri: In that _____, we should go see the movie together.

Jaden: Do you mind if I _____ your book when you're finished? I want to read it before we see the movie.

Yuri: No, not at all. I'm _____ you'll like this book, too.
