- S: Yousef, hello!
- Y: Hey, Sarah. Great to see your face again.
- S: Yes, it's been too long.
- Y: Much too long. How's it going?
- S: Well. _____.
- Y: I hear you. I know it's been a tough year for you – how is John doing? Is he still in hospital, or...?
- S: At the moment, yes. He's been in and out several times. You know, he seemed to be _____ for a bit, but then last week they had to admit him again.
- Y: That's so hard. It must be such a _____.
- S: Yeah. By the way, thanks for the _____ you sent – it cheered him up. He enjoys jokey cards like that.
- Y: Oh, _____. I'm glad he liked it.
- S: _____... how's your family? Last time we talked, Dalia was training for a big gymnastics competition – how did that go?
- Y: Oh. Actually, she had some really bad luck. She had a bad fall during practice in February, and broke her ankle. So she was in a cast and had to miss the rest of the season.
- S: Oh no! Poor girl, I'm so sorry to hear that. How disappointing.
- Y: Yes, it really was. But _____, she got accepted to her first choice of University. She'll be studying Health Sciences at U of T in September.
- S: Wow, that's fantastic! Good for her.
- Y: Yes, she's worked hard. It's a very competitive program.
- S: Well, please _____ my congratulations.
- Y: Thank you, I will!
- S: My goodness, is it 3 PM already? _____ to work on my status report if I want to finish it today.
- Y: What? Are the reports due today? I thought they were due on Friday!
- S: Oh, they are, don't worry! I just need to finish mine today because I will be in meetings all day tomorrow, so I won't have time.
- Y: Oh thank goodness! Okay, well, _____. It's been nice _____ with you.

S: Yes, it has! _____.

Y: _____. Have a great day, Sarah.

S: You too!
