

History/Social Science – Civics

|                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |
| Legislative Branch                                                                | Executive Branch                                                                  | Judicial Branch                                                                     |
|                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                     |

Pardon People

Make Laws

Two Senators for each state, the number of Congressmen is based on the population

Appoint Federal Judges

Are Appointed by the President

Approve Presidential Appointments

Decides if laws are constitutional

Sign and laws and Veto laws

Can overrule rulings made by other judges