

THERE IS /THERE ARE, SOME/ ANY

1. Read the advertisement and then complete the sentences with there's a /there are and there isn't /there aren't

Third floor four bedroom apartment in a popular area close to stores and two parks. five minute walk to subway station. living room with large windows. Kitchen, bathroom (shower only, no bathtub). Empty-ready to move in!

1. _____ four bedrooms
2. _____ a bathroom
3. _____ backyard, but _____ two parks near the apartment
4. _____ a subway station near the apartment
5. _____ a cat in the living room right now

2. Look at the picture. Write a, an, or some

1. _____ Pear
2. _____ Chocolate
3. _____ Melon
4. _____ Apple
5. _____ Meat

3. Complete the conversation with a, an, some, or any

A. What's for lunch? Is there _____ orange juice?

B. No, there isn't _____ orange juice. But there's _____ water in the fridge.

A. Good. And do we have _____ chicken or fish?

B Yes, we have _____ meat and _____ fish. There is also _____ green tomato and _____ onion, but no _____ salad.

A. No problem. We can buy vegetables _____ at the market.