

Names: _____ Date: _____

SOUTH PART 2 AMERICA

Identify what is being described in the fol-

1. The Amazon Rainforest provides nearly ____ of the oxygen on Earth.

2. South America is the only continent where you will find ____ dolphins.

3. One of the most beautiful places in the Andes.

4. The ____ is the longest mountain range in the world.

5. North and South America are linked by a thin strip of land known as the ____.

6. Known to be the largest island in South America .

7. This country produces a lot of coffee than any other countries in the world.

8. The best known ruin of this culture is in ____ and is called Machu Picchu.

9. It is known to be the major product of this continent.

10. He is the most popular leader for many South Americans in the early 1800s.

11. The first country in South America to end the practice of slavery.

12. The two most important or significant people in the liberty of South America are?

13. South America is primarily in the ____ hemisphere.

14. The largest copper mine in the world is found in what country of South America?

15. A state when humans are forced to work inhumanely.
