This house in Terfens, Austria, is definitely one that you can't brush under the

1)  [ ] ! It's got all the normal rooms and furniture:

There is a kitchen with a 2)  [ ] and chairs, a

3)  [ ] , a 4)  [ ] , a

5)  [ ] and some 6)  [ ] .

There is a bathroom with a toilet and a 7)  [ ] . There is a child's bedroom with a cute fire-engine 8)  [ ] and toys on the floor. Then why is this house so unusual? The whole house and everything in it is upside down! Everything in it, from the colourful paintings on the walls to the soft towels in the 9)  [ ] is the wrong way round. There is also a 10)  [ ] with, wait for it ... a car on the ceiling! No one lives in the house but a lot of people visit it. It's a very popular tourist attraction.
