

Aren't airports _____? There's so much happening in them. People coming, _____; people crying with sadness because they're going away, people _____ because they've arrived. Big airports are almost _____. It seems like you walk across a town by the time you check in and _____ departure gate. The thing I like most about airports is people watching. There are people _____ the world. I also like how everything fits and _____. You check your luggage in and then it disappears, _____ it again at the next airport. I still think airports need improving. There's _____ to do there. Airports really need to have an entertainment area so _____ time.
