

TestVariant 1

Date _____ Name _____ Group _____ Teacher's note _____

Task 1. Match the words to their definitions

1	temporary filling	A	the upper section of the cavity contained within the crown of the tooth
2	pulp chamber	B	a severe gum infection that can lead to tooth loss and other serious health complications
3	exodontia	C	lower jaw or jawbone is the largest, strongest and lowest bone in the human facial skeleton
4	periodontitis	D	something that has been placed to seal or build up part of a tooth. It is generally made from softer materials and is not intended as a permanent solution.
5	mandible	E	a branch of dentistry that deals with the extraction of teeth

1	2	3	4	5

Task 2. Give short answers to the questions

1) When is a glass ionomer applied?

2) What keeps the area free from saliva?

3) What kind of extraction do inaccessible teeth require?

4) What does the scaling do?

5) What can change tooth alignment?

Task 3. Mark the following statements as true or false. (T/F)

1) The procedure entails substituting decayed tooth material with fillings, which can be made from resin, ionomers, gold, amalgam, or ceramics.

2) Root canal treatment is a dental procedure used to treat trauma at the centre of a tooth.

3) The open wound never heal after the extraction.

4) Halitosis is an oral health problem where the main symptom is bad smelling breath.

5) The jawbone moves in four ways.

Task 4. Put the lines in the correct order to make a dialogue between Dr. Peterson and Bill

	When you brush your teeth, what do you use?
	Absolutely. That set it off big time!
	How have you been doing?
	Is there anything that you've done to your tooth that might have caused the pain?
	I use a soft bristle toothbrush.
	I can't sleep or eat. I have a really bad pain in my tooth!
	It bothers me off and on, but it's gotten much worse these past few weeks.
	How long have you had this toothache?
	Does it bother you when you have to chew a lot?
	My girlfriend told me that I grind my teeth a lot when I sleep. Maybe that is the problem.

Task 5. Complete the sentences

temporal bone, gutta percha, pockets, temporary fillings, dry socket

- 1) Zinc oxide is used for a variety of dental purposes including _____.
- 2) _____ is the substance that is used to fill the tooth to prevent reinfection.
- 3) _____ is a painful dental condition that sometimes happens after you have a permanent adult tooth extracted.
- 4) _____ are spaces or openings surrounding the teeth under the gum line.
- 5) An ambulance took Mr Kalyada, but happily there were no fissures in the _____.

TestVariant 2

Date _____ Name _____ Group _____ Teacher's note _____

Task 1. Match the words to their definitions

1	dental restoration	A	a procedure that's used for removing a tooth which consists of additional surgical steps that are not required during the simple extractions
2	dental dam	B	a mild, early form of gum disease that occurs when bacteria and plaque build up in the mouth and lead to infection
3	surgical extraction	C	often related to stress or anxiety. It does not always cause symptoms, but some people get facial pain and headaches, and it can wear down your teeth over time
4	gingivitis	D	a rubber device that stops the flow of saliva and other liquids around the mouth
5	bruxism	E	the various ways your dentist can replace or restore your missing teeth or missing parts of your tooth structure

1	2	3	4	5

Task 2. Give short answers to the questions1) What types of fillings require two appointments?
_____2) What might be prescribed to prevent tooth infection?
_____3) What is the formal term for a dental extraction?
_____4) What causes the gum to recede from the teeth?
_____5) How many ways can the jawbone move?
_____Task 3. Mark the following statements as true or false. (T/F)

- 1) The process of removing the decayed material leaves a space in the tooth.
- 2) Root canal treatment doesn't need a painkilling medicine that numbs your infected tooth and the gum around it.
- 3) One of the ways a tooth gets infected it received trauma.
- 4) Root planing removes tartar above and below the gumline.
- 5) Gliding actions allows the mouth to move in a circular motion.

Task 4. Put the lines in the correct order to make a dialogue between Dr. Peterson and Alex

	You know, I was eating jawbreakers in the movies the other day, and I accidentally bit down really hard on one.
	What can I do for you today?
	I just use a regular hard bristle toothbrush.
	For about a week or so, but it's gotten really bad in the last couple of days.
	Yes, it definitely bothers me more when I do that.
	Did you do anything that might have aggravated your tooth?
	Does it bother you when you eat something really cold?
	What kind of toothbrush do you use?
	How long have you had this pain?
	Doctor, I have the worst toothache!

Task 5. Complete the sentences

a swelling , temporomandibular joint, gum disease, amalgam, osteotomes

- 1) Composite fillings and glass ionomers were the most direct substitutes for _____.
- 2) An acute abscess may be painless but still have _____ present on the gum.
- 3) _____ are surgical instruments that can be used effectively to enhance the placement of dental implants.
- 4) If you get _____ , you will lose your teeth, but you'll get dentures, and it won't be that bad.
- 5) Correction of malocclusion may reduce risk of tooth decay and help relieve excessive pressure on the _____.