READING

Hello! My name is Ted. I am forty seven years old. I'm a scientist. I do experiments in a big lab. There's a library next to the lab and I read about new theories there. I love my job because I can do different things. It's really interesting! On Mondays and Wednesdays, I go to work by car with a friend. He is a scientist too and we work together. On Tuesdays and Thursdays I go to the lab by bus. And on Fridays I ride my bike to work. I live with my wife Elvia and my son Chris. We live in California.

Hi! My name is Matt. I am forty. I'm a chef. I work in an Italian restaurant. There's a big kitchen and it's very new. I like the place! I have a fantastic job because I can prepare the food that I like. My favorite dish is pizza. I cook lunch and dinner during the week. And on Saturdays and Sundays I also cook breakfast. On Fridays, there are a lot of people in the restaurant and the job isn't very easy. I am single and I live with my parents in Florence.

4. Read again the Ted story and answer the next questions.

- How old is Ted?
- What is Ted's occupation?
- Where does he work?
- Why does he like his job?

6. Read the paragraph and answer the questions

Penguin Parents

Emperor penguin parents are truly remarkable! They share the responsibilities of caring for their offspring. The female lays one egg, which she places on the male's feet. He keeps the egg between the top of his feet and a special fold of skin on his tummy. He is careful not to drop the egg. While the female goes back to the sea, the father huddles on the ice with other dads for two months. The males do not eat during this time. The female returns when the egg is ready to hatch. She feeds the chick a meal of fish. The male goes to find food in the sea for himself and the chick. Both parents then share the work of feeding the chick.

1. Fill in the correct circle to show whether each statement is a fact or an inference.
