1 Complete the story with the past continuous or past simple form of the verbs in brackets.

In August last year, I [1]_____ (travelling) around Scotland with a friend of mine for a month. In Fort William we [2]_____ (stay) with an old friend of ours from university and he [3]_____ (talk) to us about Loch Ness, which is a lake that is famous because some people believe a monster called Nessie lives in it.

We [4]_____ (decide) to go there the next day. While we [5]_____ (drive), we [6]_____ (see) a lot of beautiful trees and mountains. Finally, after an hour, we [7]_____ (travel) beside Loch Ness. It [8]_____ (look) like a big black mirror.

Soon we [9]_____ (stop) at the Loch Ness Visitor Centre. It [10]_____ (be) very busy, and lots of tourists [11]_____ (take) pictures in front of the lake. We [12]_____ (buy) some lunch and we ate it outside while we [13]_____ (wait) for an organised tour to start.

But then, while I [14]_____ (look) at the water, I [15]_____ (see) something moving. My friend [16]_____ (stand) opposite me, so the lake was behind her, and she didn't see it.

I quickly [17]_____ (run) to the water to see what it was, but when I [18]_____ (get) closer, it was gone.

Was it Nessie? I will never know for sure.

LIVEWORKSHEETS