

My quiz Proficiency: Unit 9 Vocabulary 1- Grammar 1(SB pg 112-113)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Vocabulary 1

Choose the correct answer.

1. Discovering a lack of blood cells in Joseph's blood, doctors diagnosed him with ..... .
a) diabetes                      b) anaemia                      c) obesity
2. A diet completely ..... of carbohydrates might leave a person feeling tired.
a) detrimental                      b) dependent                      c) devoid
3. The food at the banquet looked delicious and Tonya found it difficult not to .....
a) overindulge                      b) exceed                      c) yearn
4. Parents should ..... limits for their children in terms of how much sugar they consume daily.
a) set                      b) restrict                      c) refrain
5. My grandmother's ..... means that she has to take supplements to make sure her bones get stronger.
a) heart disease                      b) hypertension                      c) osteoporosis
6. Watching TV, spending time on the Internet and staying seated at work all day contribute to a(n) ..... lifestyle.
a) deficient                      b)inactive                      c) congenital
7. After a delicious meal, what I really ..... is a delicious dessert.
a) consume                      b) impose                      c)crave
8. Being underdressed in winter makes you ..... to colds.
a) beneficial                      b) associated                      c) susceptible

Grammar 1

Rewrite the sentences in reported speech.

1. 'They' re checking his blood pressure', the nurse said.
.....

2. 'I've taken cold medicine today', said Mike.
.....
3. 'The new patient wing will open next week', the director said.
.....
4. 'Don't lift these heavy boxes, Jill', said Bob.
.....
5. 'Has he got an appointment this afternoon?' Paul said.
.....
6. 'They had met with a dermatologist yesterday,' said Nancy.
.....
7. 'Where did you park the car, George?' said Neil.
.....
8. 'Please take care of yourself,' Laura said to me.
.....

