One Tuesday morning my English teacher asked us to have outing class. I and my friends in grade 8 were assigned to observe our school surrounding and to write down what we saw on the way. First, we were split out into two big groups. Out of the school gate, one group turned left and the other turned right. I belonged to the first group who turned left. We enjoyed this activity, while strolling down the lane surrounding our school. Everybody in group stared right and left along the way to get ideas for their own writing task afterward. While we were busy getting our own ideas, suddenly a big dog got out of a big house near our school. It was barking loudly toward us. Everybody in my group were panic and ran to all their own directions. I ran as fast as I could since I was very afraid of dog. Some of my friends were screaming scaredly and ran back to school. Once upon a time. there was a poor farmer. He lived with his wife. One day, when he dug his field, he found a big box.

'What's this?' he asked. He brought the box home and showed it to his wife. They did not know what to do with the box. after they had cleaned it, they kept it in the house.

One morning, his wife accidentally dropped an apple into the box. amazingly, the apple multiplied quickly. Soon the box was filled with apples. The wife was so surprised. She took one apple from the box but another apple replaced the missing one. No matter how many apples were taken out, the box was never empty of apples.

'How about if I drop a coin into this box?' asked the farmer. Surprisingly, the apples disappeared and coins started to multiply inside the box. Soon, the box was full of coins.

The farmer and his wife were very happy. Every day, they collected hundreds of coins from the box. They became very rich.

One day, the farmer's grandfather came and lived with them. He was very old and weak, so the farmer asked him to only take the coins out of the box. After some days, the grandfather was so tired. He wanted to rest, but the farmer got angry with him.

'You are so lazy! You should work harder,' the farmer yelled at his grandfather.

The old man did not say anything. He continued working. Suddenly he fell into the box and died. At once, all the money in the box disappeared and the box was filled with dead grandfathers. The farmer regretted his words, but it was too late. He pulled all the grandfathers out of the box. But there were so many. And the farmer had to use all his money for the funeral.
