

1 GRAMMAR verb + object + infinitive or gerund

a Circle the correct answer.

- My boss encouraged ____ for the post of supervisor.
a me applying b me to apply c me apply
- Gina's psychologist advised ____ her routine.
a her not change b her not changing c her not to change
- Please will you let ____ the car!
a me borrow b that I borrow c me to borrow
- Do you remember ____ you when you were ill?
a us to visit b us visit c us visiting
- She waited ____ before phoning her mother.
a for him leaving b for him to leave c him to leave
- Nicole's parents won't allow ____ hitchhiking.
a her to go b that she goes c her going
- We'd like ____ this gift on behalf of all of us.
a you to accept b you accept c you accepting
- The doctor kept ____ for over an hour.
a me wait b me waiting c me to wait
- My friend's fear of flying prevents ____ abroad.
a her from travel b her to travel
c her from travelling
- The tour guide warned ____ anything valuable on the coach while we were having lunch.
a us not leave b us not leaving c us not to leave

b Complete the sentences with a pronoun and the verb in brackets. Use an infinitive with or without to or a gerund.

- My father-in-law wasn't feeling well, so I persuaded him to see _____ a doctor. (see)
- When I was a child, my parents taught _____ lies. (not tell)
- Charlotte's injury stopped _____ hockey for a whole year. (play)
- They're taking a long time with the pizzas. We planned for _____ here during half-time. (get)
- I know Ruby is good with children, but I can't imagine _____ as a primary school teacher. (work)
- Do you think you could help _____ my new kitchen cupboards at the weekend? (put up)
- My parents don't mind _____ at night, but they'd rather I didn't come home too late. (go out)
- We got some of the questions wrong, so the teacher made _____ the whole exercise again. (do)
- Jennie's new job involves _____ all over the country. (travel)
- Our visitors are on their way, so we'd better hurry home. I'd hate _____ before we do. (arrive)