

Match the use of the Simple Present next to correct example

Routine/ Habit
Feeling/state/opinion
General truth
time table/ schedule
premanent long lasting situations

The banks open from Monday to Friday	One of my friends has red hair	We never answer the phone during dinner	Fish breath under water	Kevin is an optimistic person
Argentinian people speak Spanish	Alice and Tomas don't have lunch at home	New York is in the USA	Ice cream melts in the sun	Caroline hates horror films
I think Harry is an excellent person	We have English lessons on Wednesdays at 15:00	My parents work in a shop everyday	Starts bright at night	The train leaves at 9:00

Match the use of the Present continuous next to correct example

Actions in progress
Longer actions in progress
Fixed plans in the near future

We're having dinner	I am not going to the party tonight	I am studying to become a doctor
His father is working in Rome this month	Is Peter sleeping?	Alice is travelling to Italy next Summer
They're reading the book Tom Sayer	I am meeting my friends next Sunday	Lucy's having a shower

