Historical events

1. Watch the next video.

2. Listen and join with an arrows according to the story.

Ok, is the most recognizable word on the planet

Ok, actually traces back to an 1830s fad of intentionally misspelling abbreviations.

A couple lucky breaks one abbreviation rose above the rest :OK or Oll Korrect.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Historical events

During his 1840 reelection campaign, Mr. Martin Van Buren popularize the word O.K

The telegraph debuted in 1844, just five years after OK.

Ok became in a serious business as a logo for some factories.

Today we use ok as the ultimate "neutral affirmative"

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Historical events

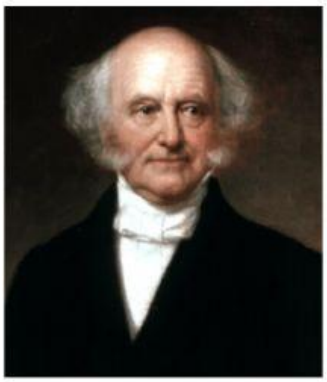

3. Look at the pictures and match with the correct word.

Ok	President	Business
Abbreviation	Martin Van Buren	Factory
Telegraph		Popularized

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Historical events

4. Pronounce the next vocabulary

Telegraph

president

Business

Factory

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Historical events

5. Answers the next questions

1. Who popularized the abbreviation O.K?

2. What time does the telegraph debut?

3. Did the abbreviation ok means "oll krontoled"

4. Today Ok is used as a "neutral affirmation"?

5.Why do we say "OK"?

Made for: Janika Jazmin Cardenas De Dios

LIVEWORKSHEETS