

How Far I'll Go

I've been staring at the edge of the water

Long as I can remember, never really knowing why

I wish I could be the perfect daughter

But I back to the water, no matter how hard I try

Every turn I, every trail I track

Every path I, every road leads back

To the place I, where I can not go, where I long to be

See the line where the sky meets the sea? Itme

And no one knows, how far it

If the wind in my sail on the seabehind me

One day I'll know, if I go there's just no telling how far I'll go

I know everybody on this island, so happy on this island

Everything is by design

I know everybody on this island a role on this island

So maybe I can roll with mine

I can lead with pride, I can make us strong

I'll be satisfied if I along

But the voice inside a different song

What is wrong with me?

See the light as it on the sea? It's blinding

But no one, how deep it

And it like it's calling out to me, so come find me

And let me know, what's beyond that line, will I cross that line?

The line where the sky the sea? It calls me

And no one, how far it goes

If the wind in my sail on the sea stays behind me

One day I'll know, how far I'll go
