Ancient Persia. Workshop.

1. Decide if the sentences are true write (T) or false write (F).

a. Persia is also known as Iran.

b. The first Persian war was between Persia and Greece.

c. The priests were the most important and powerful people in ancient Persia.

d. Military people felt a huge honor to defend Persia.

e. Cyrus built roads for communication and trade.

f. The Persian Empire was one of the greatest empires in ancient history.

g. The first monotheistic region was spread across the Persian society.

2. Complete each space with one word. Only ONE WORD.

a. _____ was a prophet who believed in only one god.

b. _____ conquered Egypt in 10 days.

c. The Persian failed to invade the _____ at their second attempt.

d. The _____ were the farmers, laborers, or owners of small farms.

e. The Persians had a _____ system in which there was a local ruler in each province.

f. Persia was located at the middle east which is between _____, Europe and _____.

g. Cyrus II conquered Turkey and _____.

h. _____ conquered the northern part of India.

i. _____ _____ was the name of the god the monotheistic Persian followed.

3. Match each person of the social structure with what they did. Write the letter in each space.

1. They were the lowest level; they had no rights.

2. They were famous citizens. They gave advice to the king.

3. They performed religious rituals and could question the decisions of the king.

4. They were the highest level of the social structure.

5. They were traders and had more privileges than the lower part of the class.

MATCH

a. Priest b. King c. Slaves

d. Craftsmen e. Aristocracy