Conditional with can / can´t

Nombre _____

I´d rather + activity + than + activity

I´d rather = I would rather Preferiría

Conditional sentences with can/can´t have two parts:

If + Present Simple, we can + Verb

If it´s rainig, we can go shopping

We can change the order of the two parts, but we don´t use a comma:

We can + Verb If + Present Simple

We can go shopping if it´s raining

If it´s	raining,	we can	go shopping wet,		make a cake
	sunny,		have a picnic
	hot,	we can´t	ride a mountain bike windy,		play table tennis
	dry,		watch TV
