

1. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate word missing.

Dread heart literacy tangible compelling mundane law-abiding debris implication momentous affirmed wholesale retention in stone shedding serrated breaking the mould

- A. He criticized the Director and, by ..... , the whole of the organization.
- B. Most of the students here need help with ..... and numeracy.
- C. The decision was ..... by the Court of Appeal.
- D. Several people were injured by flying ..... in the explosion.
- E. We cannot accept his research findings without ..... evidence.
- F. We buy the building materials .....
- G. The traffic jam was caused by a lorry ..... its load.
- H. I ..... to think what would happen if there really was a fire here.
- I. On a more ..... level, can we talk about the timetable for next week?
- J. There is no ..... reason to believe him.
- K. She succeeded in ..... of political leadership.
- L. At the same time, ..... events were taking place in Russia.
- M. He had been attacked with a ..... knife.
- N. Coder climate countries should pay attention to the importance of energy conservation and heat .....
- O. These household rules are not set .....
- P. Dan did not want to get married but recently he's had a change of .....
- Q. The police have been preventing ordinary ..... citizens from going about their own business.

2. A change can be either extreme or moderate. Match the words into the correct category.

Marginal, wholesale, cosmetic, menial, substantial, sweeping, subtle, detrimental

EXTREME	MODERATE

3. Match the phrase to its definition.

A. To fall into place	.....to save money
B. To figure out	.....to understand, find the answer
C. To set aside	.....to make a new start in life
D. To date	.....to start working, functioning
E. Turn over a new leaf	.....very much desired, wanted
F. Up and running	.....to be likely to happen
G. Sought after	.....used to dealing with sth
H. To be on the cards	.....to become clear
I. To be attuned to	.....until now, to this time in moment