

APARTHEID

Apartheid is a system of racial segregation (=separación de razas) in South Africa between 1948 and 1994.

White people are considered superior than black people, so they have more rights (=más derechos). Residential areas, schools, shops, restaurants, public toilets, hospitals, public transport, beaches and even water fountains are segregated (=separados para blancos y negros). For example: a white person and a black person can't marry. Black people and white people can't share a table in a restaurant, or sit together on a bus. Black children and white children go to different schools. Sports teams are all-white or all-black, never mixed.

Some people consider this situation unfair (=injusta) and anti-apartheid leaders like Nelson Mandela were imprisoned (=fueron encarcelados). Black people voted (=votaron) in 1994 and Nelson Mandela was the first black president of the country.
