Quantifiers used with countable and uncountable nouns

with COUNTABLE PLURAL nouns	with COUNTABLE SINGULAR nouns	with UNCOUNTABLE nouns
many		much
how many		how much
each of the	every / each
most / most of the all / all (of) the
both / both of the
a few		a little
few		little
a number of		an amount of
two, three, etc	a, an, one	a piece of
with both, COUNTABLE PLURAL and UNCOUNTABLE nouns
a lot of lots of plenty of some

A. Choose the correct option

1. _____ students in our class are Uruguayan. (each / each of the)
2. A _____ classmates like studying grammar. (few / little)
3. How _____ homework do you do a week? (many / much)
4. I've got two sisters. _____ them study English. (all of / both of)
5. _____ student in our class is friendly. (every / all)
6. _____ students in our class have a mobile. (much / most)

B. Complete the sentences with the correct quantifier. More than one answer may be correct.

each	every	all of the	some
much	many	most	both

1. I like _____ of the books J. K. Rowling wrote. They are all wonderful!
2. _____ my parents are working at home now
3. I haven't seen _____ friends during quarantine, only a few.
4. My school is so big that I don't know _____ of the students there.
5. There isn't _____ milk. Can you go and get some?
6. _____ teachers at school are helpful, which is great.
7. I love _____ song on this album! I could listen to it all day!
8. I'm keen on _____ of the songs, but not all of them.