

Final Grammar Review

Future tenses

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES USING: BE GOING TO, WILL, FUTURE CONTINUOUS AND PRESENT SIMPLE

- This time tomorrow he (hike) through the jungle
- My friend Gillian (cycle) all over the world next year.
- The tour bus around city(leave) at 5,30
- I'm cold. I think I (build) a campfire.

Past tenses

USE PAST SIMPLE OR PAST PERFECT TO COMPLETE THE GAPS

- People (not go) to that haunted house because unusual things.....
(happen) there in the past.
- The robber (escape) before the police (arrive)
- The newspaper editor (be) furious because the journalist
(invent) the story about the mysterious lights.

Relatives

USE A RELATIVE PRONOUNS IN EACH SENTENCE (WHO, WHICH, WHERE, WHEN, WHOSE)

- Peter Jackson is the film producer directed "The Lord of the Rings"
- We are planning to stay in a resort you can sleep in tree houses
- He is the man car blocked my garage door yesterday
- Paul found a wallet has 120$
- I can't remember the day we met each other

Conditionals

COMPLETE THE CONDITIONAL SENTENCES WITH THE VERBS IN BRACKETS

- If Tom were taller, he (join) the team.
- I would have written to Brad if he (give) me his e-mail address.
- If we have enough time in Dublin, we (meet) our old friends.
- If you had told us that Sue was ill, we (visit) her.

Passive

CHANGE THESE SENTENCES FROM THE ACTIVE TO THE PASSIVE VOICE

- We will take your suitcase to the hotel
- They took down the shop display last week
- Giving out free samples can increase the product sale
- Amy sells jewellery online

Modal Verbs

COMPLETE THE GAPS WITH A MODAL VERB

- You _____ eat in the classroom. It's forbidden
- He _____ to pay the magazine. It's free
- Perhaps it _____ be sunny tomorrow
- In my opinion, you _____ tell your boyfriend the truth
- Mary _____ drive a car