

Choose the correct form of the verb to be

I _____ playing football in the park.

You _____ having fun at the cinema.

He _____ taking pictures with his phone.

She _____ is cutting the pizza.

It _____ is barking.

I _____ dancing ballet.

We _____ going to the concert.

He _____ cooking in the kitchen.

They _____ eating my cupcakes.

She _____ is watching the play.

Complete in affirmative, negative or interrogative:

Example:

1- (+) You are buying sweets.

(-) You aren't buying sweets.

(¿) Are you buying sweets?

2- (+) My dog is playing in the park.

(-)

(¿)

3- (+)

(-) You aren't watching a movie.

(¿)

4- (+)

(-) They aren't eating ice cream.

(¿)

5- (+)

(-) She isn't sleeping on the bed.

(¿)