4) Choose the correct option to complete the text.

I guess what people like about extreme sports is that they get to (1) fulfil / overcome / face their potential as a human being. They really like the idea of (2) risking / encountering / overcoming obstacles and proving that things which seem impossible are actually possible. You might ask why adults want to (3) take / risk / reach their lives for a sport, but they have to practise hard and take the training very seriously to reduce the chances of things going wrong. Extreme sports are not just sports, though. They're a way of (4) reaching / facing / fulfilling your fears. I think it's important to (5) attempt / achieve / encounter things that challenge you, as I believe it makes you a stronger person.

5) Word formation. Complete the gaps with an appropriate form of the words given.

1. Their attempt to climb Everest ended in _____. FAIL
2. My second attempt at making bread was a little more _____. SUCCESS
3. Her sense of superiority makes her very _____. POPULAR
4. Tom had to _____ many obstacles before he achieved success. COME
5. An Olympic medal is a remarkable _____ for one so young. ACHIEVE

Grammar

1) Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Use the present simple or continuous (active/passive) in a and past simple or continuous (active/passive) in b.

- a. Vicky ... why aren't you answering your phone? I'm at home. My brother (1) _____ (try) to persuade me to go to a base-jumping school with him. He found out about a school in London. I keep telling him that he's crazy, but he (2) _____ (think) I'm just scared and that I need to face my fears. I (3) _____ (not care) what he says; there's no way I'm going to do something so stupid. In any case, he's wrong if he thinks he can do the course. I'm pretty sure there's a law saying that people under 18 (4) _____ (not allow) to jump off cliffs! Anyway, what about you Vicky – what (5) _____ (do) now? Call me when you get this.

b. Hi Vicky. You never answer your phone! Why (6) _____ (not be) at school today? While I (7) _____ (walk) home from school I called you, but you (8) _____ (not answer). Is everything OK?
