

Archimedes vs. Newton

1. Choose.

- He was born in Syracuse.
- He was killed by a Roman soldier.
- He was a professor at Trinity College, Cambridge.
- He was a famous inventor, mathematician and astronomer.
- He was a famous mathematician and physicist.
- He moved to Alexandria to study with Euclid.
- He explained buoyancy.
- He described gravity as a force.
- He was born in London.
- He lived during the Ancient History.
- He built the first practical reflecting telescope.
- He explained that the planets revolve around the sun in orbits that are oval.

