Grammar: REFLEXIVE PRONOUNS

REFLEXIVE PRONOUNS are used when the subject and object are the same.

Example: Mary hurt herself.
 ↓                    ↓
 subject      object

They can be:

SINGULAR	► myself	► yourself	► herself	► himself	► itself
PLURAL	► ourselves	► yourselves	► themselves

A: Now read this text and FILL in the blanks with the appropriate REFLEXIVE PRONOUN.

I don't like to go camping by 1. _____. It's not fun.
 It's the sort of thing you do with friends.

Last summer a couple of friends and I went on a trip to Jasper National Park.
 Despite the usual mishaps, we really enjoyed 2. _____.

Before we left, we bought 3. _____ some warm sleeping bags because it can get cold there even in summer.

We took two tents.

Anne and Linda shared one, while I had the other all to 4. _____.

The girls took along some insect repellent to protect 5. _____.
 There were very few mosquitoes, however.

Of course we forgot the most important thing and the first day out, we found 6. _____ in the middle of the forest with no matches!
 Linda considers 7. _____ very creative and she tried to start a fire using sticks. Of course it didn't work.

Standing there, in the middle of the forest without matches, we felt really stupid. But when we looked at each other we burst out laughing. We thought it was so funny.

On the second day we met another group of campers who were a bit lost and they gave us some matches.
 After that we were able to prepare some delicious meals for 8. _____.

Linda took advantage of the situation to teach 9. _____ how to cook.
 She watched Anne and me as we prepared the food.

We enjoyed 10. _____ very much and we really enjoyed each other's company.

When I got back and looked at 11. _____ in the mirror, I was shocked to see how wild I looked. I had grown quite a long beard.
