

HAVE BEEN or HAVE GONE

Select the right option

He has been has gone to New York twice.

We have been have gone to the cinema. We'll be back at 8 p.m.

She has never been has never gone to the USA.

Ursula has been has gone to the gym. She can't go to the market.

The fridge is full. Mum has been has gone to the supermarket.

Where is Jane ? She has been has gone to the beach.

You're late. Where have you been have you gone ?

Jane has left her boyfriend. She has been has gone away with another boy.

It's too late. The train has already been has already gone

Oh ! You have been have gone to the hairdresser's !

The school is empty. Everybody has been has gone home.