

11A Vocabulary Exercise I

1. I have a very sister. She can draw your portrait with pencil and paper and she also makes great Tik Tok videos and animations.
2. When I was a teenager I improved my writing by reading a lot. Reading stories and books by good writers was very for me.
3. My cousin is also a great friend. Whenever I feel sad or worried, he gives me kind advice. He is very
4. Martina is She always makes sure she does a good job. She pays attention to detail and doesn't cheat.
5. I'm not very I prefer to stay at home, where I feel safe, and watch TV or play with my phone.
6. That boy talks a mile a minute. He never stops. He's very indeed.
7. My friend always thinks about other people's needs. He's a person and that makes him a good leader.

8. When she makes a promise, she always keeps it and never forgets. People trust her because she is so
9. My mum is very with her cooking. She often invents new dishes, or she changes old recipes in new and surprising ways.
10. You sometimes have to be very in the city traffic. You might have to wait ten minutes at the traffic lights. Don't get angry. Stay cool and wait for your turn.
11. My best friend at school was very She played football, volleyball, badminton and table tennis every week!
12. She was a very and hard-working girl. She wanted to become Prime Minister of New Zealand. And she did. Her name is Jacinda Ardern.