

Life Skills: Turtle Pet Chores

Snakes, lizards and turtles are examples of reptile pets.
Draw a line to the picture of the turtle.

Reptile Pets

Reptile pets make great family pets. They don't need to much human interaction are cool to watch. Turtles, snakes, and lizards are examples of reptile pets.

Draw a line the picture of the turtle.

Draw a line to the picture of the snake.

Draw a line to the picture of the lizard.

Pet Turtles

Depending on what kind of turtle you have, you need to make sure that your pet turtle has the proper environment. Lighting, food and vitamins are things turtles need to live healthy lives.

Turtles like to be dirty, but their tank needs to be clean so that they don't get sick or diseased. Can you find the turtle in the picture?

Feeding a Pet Turtle

Turtles eat all kinds of living animals like fish, crickets and snails. Turtles also like to eat fruits and vegetables like lettuce, apples and bananas. They also eat pellets you buy at the pet store.

Turtles eat all kinds of living animals.

Draw a line to the picture of the fish.

Draw a line to the picture of the cricket.

Draw a line to the picture the snail.

Turtles like to eat fruits and vegetables

Draw a line to the picture of the apple.

Draw a line to the picture of the banana.

Draw a line to the picture the lettuce.

Turtles are an example of a family pet. Select the matching picture of the turtle.

Turtles are an example of a family pet. Select the word that describes the picture.

Fish

Turtle

Homework Activity #1

Watch the video of Ms. Aziz and her pet.

What pet does Ms. Aziz have?

What is the name of her pet?

What does she feed her pet?

How small was Ms. Aziz pet when she got him?

How big is he now?

Homework Activity #2

Activity #2 (Parents pick an activity that your child can complete)

Print the words 2 times on a piece of paper.

Write a sentence using each word.

Cut out letters in magazines or flyers to spell the words.

chores

pet

turtle