

Project 6 To buy or not to buy
Worksheet 4: All over the world?

1 – Compare with Europe

Ask your penpals about their food consumption habits. You can use some of these questions.
(Demande à tes correspondants européens quelles sont leurs habitudes de consommation alimentaire. Tu peux utiliser certaines de ces questions.)

How much money do you spend on...?

What did you buy on Black Friday?

How often do you...?

Do you buy...?

Write your questions on this shared document. Write your name before each question.

Click here  (Ecris tes questions sur ce document partagé. Indique ton prénom avant chaque question. Clique sur l'icône pour accéder au document.)

2 – Compare with the rest of the world (Peter Menzel's photographs)

Discover all the photographs by Menzel on the padlet. Flash the QRcode. (Découvre toutes les photographies de Menzel sur le padlet. Flashe le QrCode)

Did you know? Peter Menzel's project is called "Hungry Planet: what the world eats."

Some photographs

The Revis family from Raleigh in North Carolina. Their weekly shopping costs £219.

The Aymo family from Ecuador, with a week's food that costs £19.

The Aboubakar family from Darfur, Sudan, in a refugee camp in Chad. Their weekly food which feeds six people, costs 79p.

The Matsuda family from Japan spends £143 a week on groceries.

Project 6 To buy or not to buy

Worksheet 4 bis: All over the world? PART II

Your task:

- 1) Describe one of the pictures: name some food you can see on the picture, speak about the quantity, about the amount of money it costs, decide if it's too much/ just what is needed/ frugal. Take notes. (Décris l'une des photographies: nomme les aliments que tu vois, parle de la quantité, de la somme d'argent qu'ils représentent, indique si c'est trop/ juste ce qu'il faut / frugal. Prends des notes.)

- 2) Present your work. Record your presentation (click here) and send it to your teacher. (Présente ton travail. Enregistre ta presentation grâce au lien et envoie le à ton professeur.)
- 3) Next week: The rest of the class will listen to your audio file on the padlet, find the corresponding picture and fill in the grid. (La semaine prochaine, le reste de la classe écoutera sur le padlet ton fichier audio, devra retrouver l'image correspondante et compléter la grille.)

N°	Country	What food?	Amount of money	Quantity - reaction

Is there some food that is present on all the pictures?