RELATIVE CLAUSES

DEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES

Read and choose the correct option: who, that or where.

1. A burglar is a person _____ breaks into houses and steals things.
2. The CSI are the people _____ investigate a crime scene.
3. A forensic laboratory is the place _____ evidence is sent for analysis.
4. Fingerprints and DNA are evidence _____ the CSI look for at crime scenes.
5. DNA is material _____ is found in blood, saliva, hair and skin.

NON-DEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES

Complete the sentences with who or which.

6. Chuck Malone, _____ is a burglar, has broken into over 100 homes.
7. The forensic lab, _____ is located in the city centre, is a busy place.
8. The Black Building, _____ is still under investigation, was the crime scene.
9. DNA, _____ is found in blood, saliva and hair, is very powerful evidence.
10. The police, _____ are the first to arrive at a crime scene, have the most dangerous job.