

Read the text and answer the questions:

Once upon a time there were no rivers and lakes in China. Four dragons lived in the sea: the black dragon, the yellow dragon, the long dragon and the pearl dragon. they visited the centre of china. The people were sad and hungry. there was no rice. there was no rain.

the dragons transported water from the sea to the people. the emperor was angry. he trapped the dragons with the mountains. But the dragons still helped the people. there were now four big rivers in China, the Yellow River, the Black River, the Long River and the Pearl River.

- 1 How many dragons lived in the sea? _____
- 2 Where did the dragons live? _____
- 3 Were the people happy? _____
- 4 Was there lots of rain? _____
- 5 What did the dragons transport? _____
- 6 Was the Emperor happy? _____
- 7 Who did the dragons help? _____
- 8 How many big rivers are the in China? _____

Look at the chart and write:

	VISITED	PLAYED	WALKED TO	WATCHED
1. María	Her teacher	The piano	school	The football match
2. Sara	Her grandmother	basketball	The shopping centre	The TV
3. Killian	His best friend Bob	tennis	The cinema	A film

1. María played the piano. She visited her teacher. She watched the football match and she walked to school.

2. _____

3. _____
