Marie Curie was a great scientist who studied physics and chemistry. She was born in Poland in 1867 but she lived most of her life in France. She was the first woman professor at the University of Paris. She was very intelligent and brave, she was never weepy. She wasn't afraid to work with dangerous chemicals. She received two Nobel Prizes for her work in science!

1) What did Marie Curie study?
   a) geography

   b) chemistry

   c) physics and chemistry

2) Marie Curie was
   a) intelligent and brave

   b) weepy

   c) dangerous

3) What did Marie Curie win for her work in science?

   a) a job in the University of Paris

   b) two Nobel prizes

   c) a million dollars!