Animals Help Plants Reproduce | Pollinates or Disperses Seeds?

1.) The beautiful _____ pollinates flowers when it drinks nectar.

a) bison
b) bear
c) butterfly

2.) The smelly _____ disperses seeds when it rolls on the ground and seeds stick to its fur.

a) bee
b) hummingbird
c) bison

3.) The hungry _____ disperses sees when it eats berries and defecates in a new place.

a) bear
b) bee
c) butterfly

4.) The _____ pollinates flowers when it gathers nectar for its hive.

a) butterfly
b) bee
c) hummingbird

5.) Animals like _____ disperse seeds when they eat fruit and make waste in new places.

a) deer
b) bees
c) butterflies

6.) The lovely _____ pollinates flowers when it comes to drink nectar.

a) hummingbird
b) bison
c) deer

7.) At night, _____ pollinate flowers when they drink nectar.

a) bats
b) bears
c) deer

8.) In the Savannah, _____ disperse lots of seeds because they eat lots of fruit.

a) lions
b) elephants
c) hummingbirds