

Analysis of "The Pig Farmer"

Part 3

One day, Philippa decided to visit Prince Percival.

Read these nouns and look at the pictures.

kingdom

hill

nightingale

branch

cages

Drag the nouns to their definition

This is where you put small animal to prevent them from escaping. They are

This animal can sing beautiful songs. It's a

This is smaller than a mountain. It's a

This is part of a tree. It's a

|| This is a region ruled by a king. It's a

Let's keep reading the story!

Philippa checked the things she had in her tiny kingdom. She wanted to impress the handsome prince. She had a beautiful rose that grew under a tree on a hill near her house and a nightingale who sang the most beautiful songs from a branch on that tree.

So Philippa built two beautiful cages and went to the faraway kingdom.

When she arrived, Philippa presented the rose and the nightingale to the King, the Queen, and the Prince.

"I am Princess Philippa," she said. "And I have come to--"

"From what kingdom?" asked the Queen.

Analysis of "The Pig Farmer"

Part 3

"Um..." Philippa said, for she didn't know how to name her tiny kingdom but she invented one a minute later. "I am from the kingdom of Pigadelphia."

Philippa walked towards Prince Percival and put her two gifts at his feet.

Focus on the verbs.

The story is told in the past. All the highlighted verbs are in the past.

Complete the table. Use the verbs in the past from the story. Click on the right column: are they regular or irregular?

Verbs in the infinitive	Verbs in the past	Regular	Irregular
Arrive
Go
Grow
Sing
Walk
Have Put
Build (=make, create)
Say
Arrive
Think
Ask

Focus on the adjectives.

There are many adjectives in the story. Read them:

beautiful tiny faraway handsome

Analysis of "The Pig Farmer"

Part 3

Here are their opposites. Write the adjectives next to the opposites.

Nearby
Ugly
Enormous
Hideous

Focus on the story.

Read and then choose the correct alternative.

1. The story is set in

2. The events in the story took place in

3. The characters in this story are

4. The conflict of the story is
5. The solution to the story is