

THE PASSIVES 2

I. Transform the sentences into Passive.

1. They drink a cup of milk before going to bed.

2. Will we need calculators in the exam?

3. The drama club is performing a play.

4. Someone had already solved this problem.

5. We heard him tell this story.

6. They chose me to represent the union at the meeting.

7. Our parents didn't let us watch this violent film.

8. I don't like it when they photograph me.

II. Transform the sentences starting with the words given.

1. It is said that New York is the most exciting city in the world.

New York _____ the most exciting city in the world.

2. It was suspected that they had hidden the treasure.

They _____ the treasure.

3. People think that he is preparing for a new role now.

He _____ for a new role now.

4. It is reported that thousands of houses have been destroyed in the fire.

Thousands of houses _____ in the fire.

5. The media speculate that the Prime Minister will release a statement today.

The Prime Minister _____ a statement today.

6. It has been claimed that we overestimate our profits.

We _____ our profits.

III. Transform the sentences using "have sth done" structure.

1. We are going to employ someone to organize the party soon.
We _____ soon.
2. My secretary has arranged all the meetings.
I _____ by my secretary.
3. A shoe-maker repaired his shoes last week.
He _____ last week.
4. Why don't you ask an expert to reconstruct the sculptures?
Why _____ by an expert?
5. The shop is delivering his furniture tomorrow.
He _____ tomorrow.
6. She asks someone to prepare meals for her every day.
She _____ every day.

IV. Transform the sentences in two ways.

1. We will buy her a puppy.
She _____ a puppy.
A puppy _____
2. He asked her many questions.
She _____ questions.
Many questions _____