A banker's life

Itsuki Nakamura is a banker. He is from a small town in Japan, but now he lives and works in New York. American journalist Manny Valdez talks to Itsuki about his life and job.

How do you start a typical workday, Itsuki?

Well, I get up at five in the morning and go to the gym. Then I go home, take a shower, and make breakfast. I live with my wife in an apartment in New York, so we eat breakfast together. We always have yogurt and cereal, and I usually drink orange juice. I go to work at 8 o'clock and take the subway to the office. I always use this time to read the news on my tablet.

Where do you work?

I don't work in a bank on the street. I work in an office. I do a lot of work for big multinational companies. I usually start work at 9 o'clock and finish at 6 o'clock in the evening. I sometimes eat lunch in the office or at a small café.

Do you like your job?

I love it. I meet a lot of people from all over the world, and I need to speak a lot of different languages. I speak Japanese, English, French, and Chinese. When I'm not at work, I study Spanish.

What about your family?

I'm married. My wife's name is Isabella. She's American. We don't have children. My wife is from a big family. She has three sisters and two brothers! They all live in New York.

What do you do after work?

I usually get home at a quarter after seven. I always cook dinner. My wife likes Japanese food and she never cooks! Then I read a book or talk to my mother on the phone. She lives in Japan.
