

Words from the text. Choose the correct continuation, paying attention to the words in colour.

1. There's a round the clock cyber café on the corner. It's _____ at night.
2. Our teacher is demanding. She gives us _____ homework.
3. No wonder she's upset! I'm _____.
4. I'm infatuated with Justin Bieber. I think he's _____.
5. They broadcast the advert yesterday. Everyone saw it _____.
6. Gena hosted the party. It was at _____.
7. Games have taken over Harold's life. He has _____ other interests.
8. The audience cheered during the politician's speech. They _____ with him.
9. I meet Judy every once in a while. I've seen her _____ over the last year.

Replace the words in bold with a word or expression in colour that gives the sentence the opposite meaning.

Source | carry on | restricted | worship | weird | tough

1. Many teenagers detest pop singers.
2. Do you want to stop playing?
3. This new game is really ordinary.
4. What is the result of gaming addiction?
5. This job is really easy.
6. Access to this club is open to everyone by law.