INVERTEBRATES INSECTS, CRUSTACEANS and ARACHNIDS

Fill in the blanks with the words from the box:

wings	exoskeleton	eyes	legs
antennae	insects	abdomen	herbivores

- Bees are _____ They have a thorax with six _____ and two _____, an _____, and a head with _____ and _____.
- Bees are _____. They eat nectar from flowers.

- Bees have a thin _____for protection.

pincers	exoskeleton	Crustaceans	legs

- Crabs are_____.They have eight _____ and two _____.
- Crabs have a thick _____.

legs	exoskeleton	eyes	abdomen
insects

- Butterflies are _____. They have a thorax with six _____ and wings, an _____, and a head with two _____.
- They have a thin _____for protection.

head	exoskeleton	abdomen	legs
mouth	arachnids	thorax	carnivores

- Spiders are _____. They have eight _____. They have a _____, an _____, and a _____ with eyes and _____.
- They are _____. They eat insects.
- They have a thin _____ for protection.

Let´s describe the following animals.

Snails are _____
_____
_____
_____

Octopus are _____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Read and write true or false.

- Invertebrates have got a backbone. _____
- Scorpions are arthropods. _____
- Crustaceans have got ten legs. _____
- Some invertebrates have got an exoskeleton to protect their bodies. _____
- Snails are insects. _____
- Molluscs have got a soft body. _____
- Some worms live on land and in water. _____
- Spiders are crustaceans, they have got eight legs. _____