

MALE REPRODUCTIVE SYSTEM

Write TRUE or FALSE in CAPITAL LETTERS.

1. The function of the scrotum is to maintain the temperature of the testicles a bit higher than the temperature of the rest of the body.
2. The vasa deferentia are two muscular tubes that transport the sperm from the testicles to the urethra.
3. The prostate is the only gland in the male reproductive system that produces and adds a fluid to sperm.
4. Testicles produce sperm and testosterone.
5. The seminal vesicles are a pair of glands that produce and add a liquid that protects sperm.
6. Semen is the combination of sperm and the hormone called testosterone.
7. The penis contains the urethra.
8. Semen and urine leave the body through two different tubes that are located in the penis.
9. Most male reproductive organs are located on the outside of the body.
10. The scrotum only has one function.