

REPTILES

Complete the descriptions of the reptiles using the words given.

four limbs

slither

scales

carnivores

swim

lungs

oviparous

omnivores

Cobras have a long body that is covered with . They are very good hunters and can very quickly. Cobras are and eat other snakes, birds and small mammals.

Alligators usually live in freshwater. They have four limbs but they can faster than they can walk. They breathe with their . Alligators are and lay their eggs on land which is near water.

Tortoises live on land. They have and a hard shell. They can hide inside their shell for protection. Most tortoises are herbivores but some are and eat both plants and meat.

FISH

Label the parts of the fish.

