Name: _____

Amphibians

Select the correct words from below to fill in the blanks.

Amphibians are a kind of animal and they are always found near _____.

Frogs, toads, newts and _____ are all amphibians. Amphibians are _____ so they have backbones. They have moist, slimy _____, which helps them to breathe. Amphibians are _____ which means that they lay eggs.

Some amphibians like frogs look completely different when they are babies and go through changes before they become adults. This change is called _____.

Name the amphibians below

Watch the video below and complete the table

Sort the characteristics into the correct column.

Frog or Toad?

Cut and paste.

long hind legs	short hind legs	rough, dry and bumpy skin
lives on land	smooth, moist skin	lives near or in the water
have teeth	broad, fat body	narrow body and waist
no teeth	lays eggs in chains	lays eggs in cluster or lumps

What are three ways frogs and toads are alike?