

Sentences with 2 Verbs

① When a verb comes after “I want”, you need to use “to”.

Verb	Noun
I want to eat.	I want pizza.
I want to clean.	I want a big house.
I don't want to cook.	I want ice cream.
I want to learn English.	I want a sandwich.
I want to live downtown.

These sentences are incorrect. Correct the sentences and write the correct sentence.

Example: I want eat breakfast. I want to eat breakfast.

1. I want help my family. _____
2. I want go to school. _____
3. She want run around. _____

Write 5 things you want to do next week:

Example: I want to ride my bicycle.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

② When a verb comes after “I hate”, you do not use “to”. You must use the –ing form of the verb

Verb	Noun
I hate cooking.	She hates bugs.
I hate driving.	She hates long trips.
I hate cleaning.	I hate snakes.

These sentences are incorrect. Correct the sentences and write the correct sentence.

Example: I hate clean my house. I hate cleaning my house.

1. I hate cook. _____
2. I hate go to the doctor's office. _____
3. We hate sleep early. _____

Write 5 things you hate doing.

Example: I hate cleaning my house.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

③ When you use a verb after "I like", you can use "to" or -ing verbs. Both are correct. The meaning is the same.

Verbs	Nouns
I like eating pizza.	I like pizza
I like to eat pizza.	She likes Baby Shark.
I like to go shopping.
I like going shopping.
I don't like cooking.
I don't like to cook.
She likes dancing.
She likes to dance.

These sentences are incorrect. Correct the sentences and write the correct sentence.

Example: I like help my family. I like helping my family. OR I like to help my family.

1. I like to cooking. _____
2. My daughters like dance. _____
3. He likes to eating a lot. _____

Write 5 activities you like.

Example: I like to ride my bike on the weekends. I also like running.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Practice: Read these sentences. If the sentence is correct, write correct. If the sentence is incorrect, write the correct sentence.

Example: I like going to the movies. Correct

I like to cleaning my house. I like cleaning my house.

1. My daughter likes dancing. _____
2. I don't like to cooking dinner. _____
3. I want going to New York City. _____
4. I hate to dance to Baby Shark. _____
5. I hate going downtown. _____